

A black and white line drawing of a turkey, facing forward. The turkey's tail feathers are fanned out, and its neck is visible. In the center of the turkey's chest is a large, white, circular sign with a black outline. Inside the sign, the words "CLEVEIRS" and "OMMSECS" are written in a simple, hand-drawn, uppercase font, one above the other. The background of the drawing is filled with various decorative patterns, including swirls, dots, and floral-like motifs, all rendered in black lines on a white background.
